Says

What have we heard them say? What can we imagine them saying? Thinks

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams? What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Election bings the clarity to know what are the weak places

and which category

votes support which party.

The constitution of india allows for a maximum of 550 members in the house.

The 17th Lok Sabha was formed by the members elected in 2019 general election.

The BJP received 37.36% of the vote, the highest vote share since 1989.

This encourage citizens to elect their representatives,who later pass laws on their behalf.

Their need is to make agreements with people so they can live together in groups such as tribes, cities or countries.

To interpret voting behaviour both political science and psychology expertise were necessary.

POLITICAL JUGGERNAUTS: A QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS OF CANDIDATES IN THE 2019 LOK SABHA ELECTIONS

Discussing risks or instilling anxiety is effective at changing intensions and behavior providing good country.

This parties will understand the correlation between campaign spending and election outcomes.

This election can provide us with a peaceful transition of power from one form of government to another.

Their fears might throw light to modern or primordial in the context of political development.

They must study the way of people think,feel, and act with regard to politics.

Does

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing? Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties? What other feelings might influence their behavior?

